SK	June 7, 2012		Initial Release

Audience: All Saskatchewan Business Associates

Purpose: Inform stakeholders that the name of Saskatchewan's Ministry of Energy and Resources has changed to Saskatchewan's Ministry of the Economy

Background: On May 25, 2012, Saskatchewan Premier Brad Wall announced a major re-organization of cabinet and government ministries. The biggest change is the creation of a new Ministry of the Economy, which brings together a number of economic functions of the government of Saskatchewan including the former Ministry of Energy and Resources.

As a result, Saskatchewan Business Associates will soon begin to receive correspondence, e-mail and other communication, etc. coming from the Ministry of the Economy rather than the Ministry of Energy and Resources.
