

Changes to Royalty/Tax Payer Reporting Deadline in BC

Jurisdiction	Release/Revision Date	Location of Change in this Document	Comment
BC	Aug 19, 2021		Initial Release

Audience: BC Users who submit royalty/tax payer (RTP) information.

Purpose: To inform BC users that the royalty/tax payer submission deadline in BC is changing to align with the allocations submission deadline effective September 2021 (August production month).

Background: A meeting was held between BC Finance and a group of BC producers to discuss the alignment of the RTP submission deadline with the allocations deadline. Due to the current gap between these deadlines producers were receiving incorrect royalty calculations and invoices. To eliminate this issue, BC Finance approved changing the RTP submission deadline to be the same date as the allocations submission deadline.

Effective September 2021 (for the August production month), the RTP submission deadline will be aligned with the allocations submission deadline. For the remainder of the 2021 calendar year, the new RTP deadlines will be as follows:

- September (August production) – Monday, Sept. 27
- October (September production) – Monday, Oct. 25
- November (October production) – Thursday, Nov 25
- December (November production) – Wednesday, Dec 29
