

Reporting Kingston Volumes in Pipeline Splits

Jurisdiction	Release/Revision Date	Location of Change in this Document	Comment
MB	June 1, 2022		Initial Release

Note: this tip supersedes the tip dated Nov 12, 2020

Audience: MB Oil Battery Operators delivering to Kingston Terminals

Purpose: This tip is to inform MB Oil battery operators who deliver to Kingston Terminals that, effective April 2022 production month, Kingston has changed their process and will no longer be taking a line loss volume. The value of the line loss volume will be incorporated in the price paid

Background: Effective April 2022 production month, Kingston has changed their split reporting process and will no longer be using the Take in Kind volume therefore reporting operators are required to report pipeline splits in Petrinex without the Kingston RTIK volume.
